CINCINNATI, O., June 8.—Miss Alice Roosevelt was the guest of the Cincinnati and Brooklyn clubs at this afternoon's ball game. No special preparations were made for her coming, aside from the reserving of two boxes for herself and her friends. Because of the presence of the President's daughter there were several thousand spectators more in the stand than would have attended the game under ordinary circumstances.

Miss Roosevelt was escorted by Congressman Nicholas Longworth, who, rumor has it, will eventually win the hand of the young lady in marriage. There was a slight demonstration when Miss Roosevelt made her appearance, and during the entire afternoon she had much more fascination for the non-fans than did the game.

Pitcher McIntyre has left the Brooklyn for a few days to visit his folks in Dayton, O. He may be called upon to perform in the Saturday game and will be back in the city before that time.

Hendon on Griffiths.
Chairman Hendon, of the National Commission, today heard the testimony of Ed. Hendon, manager of the Brooklyn and president of the Baltimore Club, in the case of Howard Griffiths, of Jersey City, who has been accused of fomenting a revolution against the American League on the part of minors. After his talk with Hendon, Griffiths declared that the charges against Griffiths were ridiculous.

EDGREN'S COLUMN

BARNEY DREYFUSS is roasting John McGraw for appealing to the law of the land in his baseball fight. Believing that the public is interested in this matter we have collected, at great expenditure of ink, expressions on the subject from various well known managers.

The czar says:
The Evening World, New York:
Muggerovitch McGrawsky is undoubtedly a genius. Law is the thing. Had I only thought of getting out an injunction in time I would not have lost my feet.
NICHOLAS.

HERE'S another:
The Evening World, New York:
Is Mr. McGraw a majority stock owner in the New York team? If not, I must say that his appeal to the law is an unardonable faux pas. In the latter case he is a mere capitalist and should be excluded from the best society.
GOT HIZZEN HYDE.

The Evening World, New York:
AW is good; yes. Der mailed fast is better yet. If His Excellency McGraw has no mailed fast I can send him one by express.
DER KAISER.

The Evening World, New York:
Banzai! Why should there be an injunction? With a little experience McGraw would blow Dreyfuss up much better with a torpedo. I refer him to my late bravely courageous rival, T.O.G.O.

The Evening World, New York:
Best thing is unpercut.
JAMES J. JEFFRIES.

THE LITTLE BLACK MAN.
O'Neill in Philadelphia seems to have come too late to save him the match with Jimmy Britt in San Francisco.

The reports of Nelson's engagements with Attell and Kid Sullivan of Washington, in neither of which did he lose, have done little to save him the match of it, save out to Nelson's reputation in the West. Britt, always with one finger on the public pulse, immediately began negotiating for a twenty-round match with "Kid" Sullivan, who has been a good man in the past.

LAJOIE is here, but it does not appear to be doing his batting average much good.

The Highlanders' luck still sticks. Team losses, all back to a single, and watered down, and old Jumper Pluvius simply opens the floodgates and lets the rain come down. If the grounds weren't so high the good American League team would be a laughing stock.

AMERICAN LEAGUE PARK, June 8.—The Highlanders were shut out here to-day by the Cleveland, 4 to 0, being the final score.

General Griffiths, his shaggy eyes drawn in one complete arch, glowered as he watched the battle, and also harangued his crimped veterans. He pointed out that the Cleveland batted last to last place. That it was pitted against one of the best playing ball team on earth, and that four good fans were here to see the first.

As the momenta tipped past and the clash approached, Napoleon felt the muscles of his jaw twitches. Moore and Hess, and winked to the audience, as though to say: "Let Chesbro do his worst."

Griffiths was in earnest conversation with his pitching luminary, persuading him to work, but Chesbro hesitated. He was playing foul weather. The field was in superb condition, the sky was clear and no better conditions could have been desired for a battle royal that promised to be fought.

First Inning.
There were twenty for Jack Chesbro when his famous right arm still showed cleverness in striking out Vinson. May be he was a little out of control, but Chesbro also gave Hay the double cross. When Rick came out Chesbro allowed him to pass, not getting done, however, as the great Napoleon went down on a little bounce to Chesbro. NO RUNS.

Dave Fultz connected with the horsehide at right, but Lajoie was at the other end of the line and did not beat a slow one to Turner. Turner was forced at second by Chesbro. NO RUNS.

Second Inning.
Chesbro was still there with the goods and retired Bradley on a little bounce. He was playing foul weather. Thus far, Turner negotiating a single that bounced over Chase's head. By a brilliant double play Turner and Stoval were retired. Williams scooped up the latter's sod cutter and transferred it to Conroy, who nipped the runner at first by a narrow margin. NO RUNS.

Turner got his third assist on Williams. He was forced at second by Conroy. Chesbro's double play was a hit that Bradley fielded with one hand, making a poor throw. Conroy was out. No run. Turner walked. Stoval flied out. Turner to Lajoie. NO RUNS.

Eighth Inning.
Yeager handled Plick's short one. Lajoie slammed a double to center. Plick scored on Bradley's single to center that went through Fultz, and Stoval flied out. Turner walked. Stoval flied out. Yeager. Kleinow's high throw to second scored Bradley. Bradley flied out. NO RUNS.

Ninth Inning.
Moore fanned. Vinson singled to right. Day forced Vinson at second. Fultz out. Chase unassisted. NO RUNS.

Tenth Inning.
Williams flied to Bay. Bay also caught on. Lajoie caught Chase's fly. NO RUNS.

LATONIA WINNERS.
LATONIA, Ky., June 8.—The races here to-day resulted as follows:

(Special to The Evening World.)
PITTSBURG, June 8.—The Giants were beaten by Pittsburg in the score and game of the series here by a score of 4 to 1. The game was the first that Leon Ames, who was in the box for the Giants, has ever lost.

All excitement having ended, the crowd was not so large as on the opening of the series, but those who did come out came with the intention of pulling Pittsburg back into second place. If consistent rooting could turn the trick, the left field bleachers were sure to be a source of frequent comment among spectators who observed the chill.

By the way, it developed to-day that Pittsburg really did make that bet on Dreyfuss winning the pennant. A man who is in position to know said to-day that Dreyfuss had made a wager of $4,000 to $7,000 that the team would again land the rag, as this probably accounts largely for his intense seriousness.

First Inning.
Donlin flied out. Ames struck out. McGinn flied out. McGraw flied out. Brennan flied out. Merrett flied out. Clancy flied out. Danley flied out. Devlin flied out. Peltz flied out. NO RUNS.

BY FRANK W. THORP.
(Special to The Evening World.)
GRAVESEND, NEW YORK, June 8.—Although the weather was somewhat disagreeable and threatening skies prevailed early, the crowds that ventured to Gravesend found it more pleasant this afternoon, as sunshine was in order and a little more balmy air cheered those that made up a fairly good attendance at the course.

The card was an extremely brilliant one, still it had enough attraction to make speculation brisk, and the bookmakers were kept busy.

The feature of the programme was "The Standard" at a mile and a quarter, which had been narrowed from its original size to that of a three-furlong race. On the whole, the card was well filled and proved keen interest.

O'Donnell, who rode Merry Moments, was taken to the Coney Island Hospital after the steeplechase had been run. The third jump, and O'Donnell's leg was snapped against the fence.

Hildreth's First Killing.
FIRST RACE—$1200 added; handicap for three-year-olds, about six furlongs. Start made. Won driving.

Starters: Jock, Ws. St. H. H. F. Bet. P. Almansor, Owens 120 7 3 1 7.5 8.5; Woodas, W. Davis 110 4 2 2 4.5 5.5; Bohemia, Reid 110 4 2 2 4.5 5.5; Diamond Flash, Sparkling Star, Incarnation, Ws. and Henday also ran.

Sam Hildreth celebrated his return to the Eastern turf with one of his characteristic turf killings in the opening race. In entry, the Spencers took Jake Sanders (4 to 1) and a sensational finish won by a nose from Woodas, which beat Bohemia the same distance for the place.

Bonfire Fell When Leading.
SECOND RACE—$1000 added; selling; three-year-olds, five furlongs. Start made. Won driving.

Starters: Jock, Ws. St. H. H. F. Bet. P. Almansor, Owens 120 7 3 1 7.5 8.5; Jim Newman, Ray 110 4 2 2 4.5 5.5; Calorahatchee, Reid 110 4 2 2 4.5 5.5; Robinson, McShannon, Bellows, Jack Kuba, Kuba, Bonfire and Merry Moments also ran.

Donlin made the pace for fully two miles where he fell. Jim Newman and Almansor then went to the front and raced head and head to the stretch, where Almansor drew away and won by three lengths. Jim Newman was twenty lengths in front of Calorahatchee.

Phyllis A. Just Landed.
THIRD RACE—$1000 added;
